Virtual Dress to Impress

Do you want your clients to feel confident about themselves?
To have an edge in business opportunities or interviews?
Boost their self esteem by taking this program!

Geared for community members

Company staff • Social work clients • Employment and training clients

Inclusive for all women & men, youths & Elders

Image North Consulting is an Indigenous-owned company focused on working with clients to help them boost their confidence. With 14 years experience, Image North delivers results through an interactive online program called Dress to Impress. Clients uncover their authentic self by discovering their personal style, colours & goals.

- Participants of all ages, in a group setting of 4 will experience the importance and impact of effective non-verbal communication skills.
- Designed for clients who require a boost to their confidence for future job interviews, lifestyle, business opportunities, professional development & incentives for graduates!
- Workshop includes a virtual shopping trip in which each client receives an entire outfit including shoes, and new hairstyle.
